

Drinking Water Advisory

Northern Settlement of Uranium City

August 26, 2022

Notice:

- The Northern Settlement of Uranium City is under a boil water advisory.
- A water sample collected revealed the presence of E.coli in the drinking water.

Boil water before use for:

- Consumption – drinking, cooking, teeth brushing.
- Washing – hand washing, bathing, showering.
- Cleaning – washing dishes, raw foods such as fruits and vegetables.

Water can be treated most effectively by heating to a “rolling” boil for one minute.

Duration

The boil water advisory is in effect until further notice.
